Monthly Newsletter

1 March 2025

Let's Take a Look Back At February, 2025:

February was another great month at Reedsburg Country Club and 1924 Bar & Grill. As we step into March, we want to take a moment to reflect on all the excitement from the past month.

-We were honored to host 6 private parties and banquets in our event space, welcoming families, friends, and colleagues for special celebrations. It's always an honor to be part of these memorable moments, and we appreciate everyone who chose RCC for their gatherings.

-Winter nights were anything but dull thanks to our Tuesday Night Cornhole League and Thursday Night Pub Trivia.

-Our Valentine's Day menu specials on February 14th were a hit! Despite the intense weather, we welcomed a packed house with over 60 reservations, plus walk-ins. A huge thank you to our talented chefs and their team for crafting an unforgettable dining experience.

Nights like these highlight why having a bar and grill that combines comfort food with unique specials right here in Reedsburg is truly exceptional!

-On February 15th, we hosted our 1st Sheepshead Tournament, which drew more than 18 players for a competitive and entertaining afternoon. Thank you to everyone who participated—we can't wait to do it again soon.

-Another highlight of the month was the Hondo Pool Tournament, where we proudly hosted for a members and guests only day on Sunday, the 23rd of February. We welcomed a full house.

-Then to end the month, Bob, Jason and Luke attended the Chicago golf show February 28th-March 2nd. They shared RCC with thousands of new faces, and created lasting impacts for the growth of RCC.

-In February we also booked our 4th and 5th wedding for the 2025 wedding season.

Employee Highlight:

Meet Our Business Manager, Jordyn Melvin:

Born and raised in Reedsburg, Jordyn Melvin has returned to Reedsburg Country Club, stepping into the role of Administrative Assistant. With 15 years of experience in operations and restaurant management, including a previous role as Clubhouse Manager, Jordyn knows the ins and outs of keeping a hospitality-driven business running smoothly. She's dedicated to fostering a welcoming and efficient environment, ensuring that the behind-the-scenes details are as polished as the greens on the course.

Jordyn's passion for hospitality extends beyond the club. Whether she's organizing business operations, supporting the team, or engaging with vendors, her goal is simple—help RCC thrive. Her motto? "Take care of your employees, and they'll take care of the rest."

When she's not at RCC, Jordyn and her husband, Matthew, keep busy with their four kids—Landyn, Letti, Hazel, and Brooks—running between hockey rinks, soccer fields, and dance competitions. When the sun is shining, you'll find the Melvin family soaking up summer at the lake, exploring the Waterpark Capital of the World, or squeezing in a round of golf—where Jordyn proudly claims her main role is providing "emotional support" for her husband's game.

We're excited to have Jordyn back on board! When you stop into the club next time, make sure to say "Hello!"

Board Member Highlight:

Meet Our Secretary, Bryan Yager:

For the past seven years, Bryan Yager has proudly served as the Reedsburg Country Club Board Secretary, bringing dedication and leadership to the club. First elected to the board in 2016, he was re-elected in 2022 for his third three-year term, a testament to his commitment and the trust RCC members have in his vision for the club.

As a 14-year RCC member, Bryan has a deep appreciation for the club's history, community, and future growth. His role on the board allows him to contribute to policy-making, operations, and strategic planning, ensuring RCC remains a premier destination for golfers, members, and guests alike. Passionate about preserving the club's traditions while embracing innovation, Bryan is dedicated to fostering an inclusive, welcoming, and thriving environment for all.

Outside of RCC, Bryan enjoys time with his wife, Tracy, their five children, and two grandchildren. Whether on the course, engaging with fellow members, or helping guide the club's direction, he remains committed to ensuring RCC continues to grow and succeed.
